

Parsons-Souders Thursday, October 3rd. Local rains tonight and warmer Parsons-Souders

Opening Day In China Store

It is good in going to homes this evening, feeling that our friends were well impressed with the things which they had seen.

It felt good to wake up this morning with the same kind of feeling and to bring it along to our work, so as to lighten and to brighten the business day.

I just love this store said a young married woman yesterday, who has recently moved here from New York.

"Your goods are so attractive, fashionable, just like New York stores." We asked her, How are the prices?

"Lower," says she.

How is the service? "I cannot ask better, and the courtesy of your salespeople makes me feel perfectly at home."

An Introductory Comfort Offer, $3.75

If you paid $10 for a comfort you couldn't get one more comfortable, or more comfortable looking than the ones in this introductory sale; of silky covering, soft, fluffy, filled with finest corded cotton; ribbon knotted. Special price, $3.75.

Splendid assemblage of Capp's Famous Indian Blanket Robes, sizes 60x72 inches, $7.50; also Auto Robes $6 and $6.50

Armour's "Sylvian" Series of Soaps, 10c 3 for 25c

Distributed through the Parsons-Souders store to the Clarksburg public as a 10-cent toilet soap proposition we can truthfully say this "Sylvian Series" surpasses any we have ever seen.

Heliotrope, rose, violet, lilac, sandalwood, carnation, rosaire glycerine, rosaire cocoa buttermilk, large generous size cakes, made by Armour and Co., Chicago, Ill.

Price 10c a cake; or 3 for 25c.

Friday morning there awaits you about sixty suits and coats representing some of the best styles and most fashionable fabrics of this season that have had their prices changed to $15. Effected by a readjustment of our stocks.

Fine Rugs for Your Best Rooms, $55

Parlor—Library—Music Room. Of superior grade Royal Wilton in exclusive designs especially adaptable to color schemes.

Patterns and colorings positively unsurpassed, rivaling the real oriental. Sizes 9x12. Price $55.

Brass Curtain Poles That Reach New Ideas

A good housewife is like a progressive merchant, perfecting details of appearances. Therefore, improve your double drapes, over drapes, valance and tuple drape curtains by using brass poles;

Prices 25c to $1.25.

These poles are warranted not to sag or tarnish.

Yesterday at the Waldo a certain millinery representative offered us 50 pattern hats, beautiful models they were, at a price. We'll take them, so they are here today priced $5 to $15

This crowd us some little, we have therefore taken some twenty $1.50, $5 and $6.50 hats, tailored styles and marked them choice $3.75

Bloomers!

Of the sort that take up no more room than a thought are these of silk jersey. $3.95.

There is certainly sound argument in favor of the Bloomer over that of the petticoat.

Woolen jersey bloomers, $1.95.
Black Satteen bloomers, $1.00.

An Indispensible Thing for School Boys and Girls

And parents should see that their orders are obeyed to the letter.
An Aluminum collapsible drinking cup at 2c each.

We have just 1200 of them, ready and expect a stream of Boys and Girls here Saturday morning.

SOCIAL

Traction Men Dine

An elaborate course dinner was given in the Waldo hotel at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening by the traction company to its officers, heads of some of its departments and a number of guests. The object of the dinner was to bring together officials, employees and others so that they might become more closely allied in the work of constructing the Weston line of the system as well as features of operating the various lines in this section. Details of various improvements to be made soon were discussed and it was announced that the Weston line would be in operation early next spring.

Among the speakers were James O. Watson, of Fairmont, general manager; Smith Hood, of Fairmont, general superintendent; and Dudley Britt, resident engineer of the company. They talked about the traction system and its successful efforts in providing electric railway facilities for this section of the state. They reviewed the extensions and improvements here the last year or two, costing in the neighborhood of $100,000.

Other speakers were H. V. D. King, secretary of the local board of trade; George T. Watson, of Fairmont; and Charles W. Evans, a member of the Fairmont chamber of commerce.

The diners were James O. Watson, Smith Hood, Walton Miller, Dudley Britt, Ernest Hutton, Raleigh T. Green, S. B. Miller, F. C. Davis, O. F. Lough, E. Drennen, George T. Watson, D. L. Evans, S. M. Gallagher, Charles W. Evans, H. V. D. King, William Alger, J. P. Wigginton, E. C. Bowman, O. L. Flowers, R. L. Kingsland, W. D. Stockey, Frank Gething, A. T. Watson, J. P. Kelly, Joseph Lehman and D. D. Leonard.

Surprise Birthday Party

Celebrating the eighth anniversary of the birth of their son, Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shakerford gave a surprise party for him Wednesday evening at the Shakerford home. In which a number of his young friends took part. Various games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

Those present were: Hazel Stutler, Nellie Lee Louise Saas, Mildred Lamping, Nell Nixon, Mildred Batten, Lillian Rider, Cecil Shakerford, Frank Riley, Robert Hickman, Homer Fuller, Leland Garrison, George Nutter and Robert Swager.

Enjoyable Dance

Most enjoyable was the dance given last evening in Hoffman Hall from 9 to 12 o'clock with Miss Margaret Mulheran, Miss Elizabeth Condry, Miss Margaret Lyden and Miss Frances Gloeckner hostesses. A delightful program of dance music was played by the Cadenza orchestra and about 100 guests participated in the evening's popular diversion. Fruit punch was served during the evening.

Marriage Announced

The marriage of Mr. John Kirkpatrick, of this city, and Miss Harriet Lathorn, of Charleston, Monday at Oakland, Md., is announced. The announcement is a happy surprise to their many friends. The bride has been located in Clarksburg several months as stenographer for W. E. Beardsley and the bridegroom is a well known young business man.

Elected Delegate

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Stealey Heights, Mrs. Carl Taylor was elected a delegate to the state convention to be held in Clarksburg the coming week. Mrs. A. B. Rohrbaugh was elected alternate.

Successful Tea

A very successful tea was served by the women of the auxiliary of Christ Episcopal church in the parish house this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock and quite a number attended.

To Be Hostesses

Misses Genevieve and Mae Connell will be hostesses this evening of the East End Sewing Circle in their home on Chapel street.

WESTON

WESTON, Oct. 3.—Constable A. N. Keister with his bloodhounds, assisted by Policeman O. L. Harrison, ran two bootleggers down on Polk Creek Wednesday and succeeded in capturing them for the lockup. They had crawled under a barn and were handling the goods from the side entrance. They will be taken to Philadelphia as soon as Deputy Marshal E. D. Hupp arrives.

Dear Amy:—

John and I will have our tenth wedding anniversary next Wednesday night. I want you and Bob to come. John told me the other day that he was more my sweetheart than ever. He had just made a good business deal and said I could have anything I wanted.

I made him buy me new furniture to replace what was worn out. I don't believe in having old things in the house, do you?

Your old friend,

Lou.

P. S.—I want you to go with John and me to hear C. Edmund Neil Friday evening and on Saturday afternoon to select a nice dining room outfit at
